(Year: N/A) Description: This top notch moving and storage company is affiliated with one of the largest moving van lines in the nation, they specialize in residential and corporate relocations. For 35+ years they have provided superior service in the Augusta, GA to Aiken, SC area and have a 97% customer satisfactory rating. Not to mention there is over $500,000 in equipment and moving trucks included in this sale. On average this company manages 100-120 moves a month, with 75% of those being over the road, long distance moves and 25% local moves. They are equipped to handle any size move to include small residential, complex office relocations, medical facilities and fragile electronics. Customers can also conveniently store their belongings for short term or long term in a secure warehouse with the items to be delivered at a later date. This company maintains a Standard Carrier Alpha Code(SCAC) and is approved for handling moves, to include military moves, throughout all 48 of the contiguous United States. This is a key resource for their business as they're located just miles from the major military base of Fort Gordon. This is an opportunity to own a company that offers a service that will always be in demand no matter the state of the economy. After decades of owning this great business, the owner is ready to retire. *This business has been pre-approved for SBA financing.
